MDCCLXXV.

To the CLERKS of COURSES.

AS many fatal Accidents happen by Riders being thrown or jammed againſt the Poſts, which are commonly ſquare, and much larger than neceſſary, it is earneſtly recommended to all Clerks of Courſes, where new Poſts are erected, to have them made round, of a light brittle Wood, not above three Inches in Diameter, and two feet higher than uſual; and where the old ones are ſuffered to remain, to have the Edges taken off, and the bottom ſawed nearly through, ſo that they may fall with any ſtrong preſſure.

None to borrow horſes, &c. for trials, without entering them in the book, except confederates.

THAT no perſon do borrow or hire any horſe, &c. not belonging to his avowed confederate, to run in a private trial, without entering the name of ſuch horſe, before the trial ſhall be run, in the book appointed to be kept for that purpoſe, in the coffee-room at Newmarket: And no perſons to be deemed confederates, who do not ſubſcribe this article as ſuch.

Diſputes how to be determined.

When the judge cannot decide a ſweepſtakes, or ſubſcription, the two firſt horſes to run over again.

THAT all betts determined by one event ſhall be ſubject (as before agreed) to any compromiſe made by the principals, and paid in proportion to ſuch compromiſe; but that all double betts ſhall, for the future (to prevent the frequent diſputes which have ariſen) be conſidered as play or pay betts.

RULES for MATCHING and FIGHTING of COCKS in London, which have been in Practice ever ſince the Reign of King Charles II.

TO begin the ſame by fighting the lighteſt pair of cocks (which fall in match) firſt, proceeding upwards to the end; that every lighter pair may fight earlier than thoſe that are heavier.

IN matching (with relation to the battles) it is a rule always in London; That after the cocks of the main are weighed, the match bills are compared.

THAT every pair of dead, or equal weight, are ſeparated, and fight againſt others; provided that it appears that the main can be enlarged, by adding thereto, either one battle or more thereby.

old: at five, he won a plate at Aſcot-Heath, and the King's Plate at Litchfield in a canter, beating Julius Cæſar, which has covered years paſt at 30gs at Guildford. In the year following, had won the firſt heat for the King's Plate, and was winning the ſecond with eaſe, and by accident diſlocated his paſtern, or would have won all the King's Plates in the ſouth. Henricus was got by Black-and-All-Black, the beſt ſon of Old Crab, which Black-and-All-Black was ſire of the dams of Firetail, Pincher, and ſire of Fair Phillis, which won many plates; his dam by Hobgoblin, which got Shakeſpear and Trimmer, and the grandam of Harvey's flying mare, which no doubt was the beſt of her time; alſo, the dam of Mirza and Entrance. Hobgoblin was got by Aleppo, a ſon of Darley's Arabian ſire of Childers, his dam by the Wharton Careleſs, which got the dam of Childers; ſo that Hobgoblin and Childers were very near in blood: Henricus, till within the laſt year, was not known to have had three good mares, or more than three of his get trained; one of which is Proſerpine, which ſtarted for eight plates, and won ſix of them, giving weight to different ages, ſuch as ſixteen pounds to Neſtor, and beat him; one of the others won four plates and a ſweepſtakes; ſo that without partiality or prejudice he ſhould have the preference of numbers that cover at 20gs or more. Henricus ſhall cover any mare that has won two 50l. plates, for only the fee to the groom, or any that may have bred a horſe or mare that have won two plates.

As Dragon has produced many good runners, though he never had five bred mares in one year, and is nearly allied to many capital ones, much may be reaſonably expected from him as a ſtallion for the turf; many of his get, from their bone, ſize, and faſhion, have been ſold at high prices for hunters out of common mares.

WHERE the Public in general may be furniſhed with Girths, Surcingles, Horſe-Cloths, and every article in the Saddlery Buſineſs, by T. KNIBBS, Girth-Web Manufacturer, for his Majeſty, at the King's Arms, No. 20, Boſwel-Court, who has for many years ſerved, wholeſale, moſt of the capital ſhops in London.

He

He requeſts the public to take notice, that the very great demand for his new-invented Spring Girths, (which contain two ſorts of web in one, the ends being of a tight and firm ſubſtance, to endure the wear and chafe of the boot, without a lining, and the middle is of a thick ſoft looſe ſpring), ſo univerſally approved of, ſince their being firſt made public in the Racing Calendar, and moſt of the public papers in the kingdom, having induced others to attempt to imitate them, and are far from being equal to his, either for ſtrength or real ſervice; in order to prevent the public's being impoſed on, the proprietor's new-invented Spring Girths have KNIBBS, LONDON, ſtamped on them.

Gentlemen have now an opportunity of being ſupplied with any ſort of Girth-Web at the firſt hand; the proprietor humbly relying on the generoſity of every horſeman, for the encouragement which is due to the firſt inventor of an article of ſuch public utility as the above Girth, in avoiding the miſchiefs which too often happen from Girths breaking in hunting, or on the road.
